Sugar Harvest Cut By 1 Million Tons

Three hard frozes within a ten-day period in December is rumbling with a light yield per acre to mean a million ton loss in the expected sugar cane harvest throughout the Glades this season.

Before the harvest began, officials estimated a total of 9.6 million tons of cane would be harvested for the season, yielding 923,000 tons of raw sugar.

Nelson Fairbanks, vice-president and general manager of the Florida Sugar Cane League, revised those estimates downward to 8.6 million tons of cane and 800,000 acres being harvested for the 1973-74 season, Fairbanks said.

"This year we had a lighter weight of cane," Fairbanks said. "Coupled with three frozes in December, we had a drop in our production."

The revised estimates compare poorly with the 9.6 million tons of sugar processed by the industry's eight mills last season.

That record crop yielded a total of 960,000 tons of raw sugar from 250,441 acres of land planted in cane.

Another record set last year should be also stand, according to Fairbanks. "We anticipate our companies finishing their harvesting season by mid-April. Last year, we had companies operating into mid-May."

Some of the mills, such as the Gulf & Western mill at Okechanta, will begin their grind-down in mid-March, indicating a season at least a month shorter than last year's record breaker.

Taliman, continuing its all-mechanical harvest for the second year in a row, set the longest record last year when the mill finally ground down after a 230 day season.

Even before the December frozes occurred, sugar industry officials said the early predictions of another bumper crop couldn't be expected this year.

Bond Issue In Works For 80?

The Palm Beach County Commission Tuesday was favorably considering a multi-million dollar bond issue to pay for right of way in new road construction, with SR80 taking top priority.

The bond issue was offered as an alternative to the $2.1 million loan the county was first offered and, last week, refused which was to be used for right of way along a relocated SR80.

State Department of Transportation representative Sam Draper told the commission it could float bonds from $2 to $37 million for the project.

State Sen. Philip Lewis, who was present, said he plans to file a bill giving the state instead of the county the authority to buy right of way. Similar bills in the past have failed.

Jaycees Drop Local Beauty Pageant

Will Pat Baker Be Last Harvest Queen Winner

A 20-year old Glades tradition will be broken this spring when March rolls by with no Harvest Queen sash being staged.

Belle Glade Jaycee President J.L. "Butch" Henderson said the club, which usually sponsors the contest, decided in December to drop it for this year.

"We didn't feel that this year," Henderson said, "we had enough funds to go ahead with it. We've had to just about rebuild the clubhouse from scratch (after it was broken into by vandals) and we didn't have enough left."

Henderson said the club had another problem this year because so many of the active members are new members. He said there aren't enough members with both the time and experience to put the pageant together.

"Then too," he said, "it's been a losing proposition for the past several years. The club has lost money the past few times we've put it on."

He said he wasn't sure whether the club would take up the tradition in 1975 or not, but that the members would have to make up their own mind at the appropriate time.

"If it could be worked out so two or more clubs could put it on," he said, "that would probably be the best thing."

Henderson said he hadn't contacted any other clubs in the area to see whether they would be interested in either taking over the entire responsibility or making the project a joint effort.

Henderson said the Jaycees made a firm decision toward the end of December not to hold the pageant this year. Last year, the project ran into difficulties resulting in the naming of a new president for the club, who also began coordinating Harvest Queen preparations.

Dennis Dougherty, who filled in as interim president, and fellow Jaycee Roy Jacks worked together to ensure a successful 1973 Harvest Queen but that could be the last, breaking a string of pageants reaching back to 1954.

Mrs. Delores Abbott was the first Harvest Queen, chosen the year the "Young Men of Action" began the pageant. Since then, there was no rule against it at the time, Mrs. Abbott was who chaired the first Harvest

Queen effort was a married fireman, who is now reportedly employed as a firefighter in Lantana and the president was John Newman, who now operates Bob's Phillips 66 Truck Stop in South Bay.

The 20th Harvest Queen, and possibly the last who will queen, was Miss Pat Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker. She was crowned by Miss Kit Tucker of Ft. Lauderdale.

Miss Baker is now living in West Palm Beach, where she is attending Palm Beach Junior College.

Belle Glade To Star In TV Shows

The large-mouth bass fishing around Belle Glade will receive national advertising on television shows to be filmed here next week which will be aired on 81 radio and television stations.

A crew of 17 fishermen, writers and sportscasters and technicians will arrive Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday and leave Thursday.

The films will be done in four separate efforts, with a primary effort being put into the Virgil Ward 1974 Championship Fishing radio and television series.

The show is aired in cities from Orlando to Bangor, Me. and as far west as Albuquerque, N.M. and Reliance, S.D.

Daytona Beach area is the only in-state television station carrying the show but viewers in the Pensacola area will be able to see the fishing from mobile, Ala. station.

Virgil Ward, according to information received from Byrre and Associates, an advertising agency handling the expedition, is a three time national and international fishing champion.

He also established the Bass Buster Lure Co., purchased a year ago by Johnson Wax, the company footing the bill for the trip. Ward's partner, Dave Jadin, is the reigning U.S. Open Fishing Champion.

The two fishermen usually host personalities and outdoors enthusiasts on their show and they emphasize the area they are fishing in.

One of the more recent shows Ward and Jadin filmed featured bassball's Most Valuable Player Peter Rose as the three were angling on the Kissimmee River.

Chamber Outlines Its Goals For 1974

The Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce set eight tentative goals for the coming year, including two holdovers from the goals stated early in 1973, at its Tuesday meeting.

1. Direction signs to Glades General Hospital for new residents and tourists.
  2. Promote building sidewalks in the city where needed.
  3. Emergency alarm system or phones to be installed on SR80 east.
  4. Historical and points of interest signs to be erected for tourists visiting the area.
  5. Continue to promote a building site for the Palm Beach Junior College.
  6. Promote a vocational school for the area.
  7. Re-activate the Merchants Committee.
  8. Promote a truck route for Belle Glade.
- Chamber president Ben Clarke said these were not necessarily all the goals the chamber will set and these eight were not set in any particular priority. The two goals held over from last year are numbers three and five and some other goals are similar to those set for 1973.
- The vocational school promotion corresponds to the 1973 goal set to support all school activities in the area and the merchants committee reactivation corresponds to establishing better relationships between the board or directors and the membership at large.

$10,000 Extra Spent On Streets

The fuel shortage was felt again last week by Belle Glade City Commissioners as they agreed to pay as much as $10,024 more for a street paving contract.

The contract called for Gold Coast Paving Co. to spread an estimated 2,831 tons of hot mix asphalt, set in place, at a price of $20 per ton to pave some 18 blocks of city streets.

Gold Coast President Homer

Carr told the city he was in difficulties, however, and asked the city's help following hikes in prices on the asphalt from $9.50 to $14.50 per ton. He said the cost of renting the trucks to carry the street covering had also gone up.

The commission, during a special meeting at the city attorney's office Thursday, agreed to pay Carr $4 more per ton for the asphalt, retroactive to several blocks Gold Coast has already laid.

The agreement included a clause, however, that the city would deduct 4 per cent from the total $24 per ton if the city is able to eliminate the state sales tax.

City Attorney John Baker and the commissioners expressed surprise at the last regular commission meeting when Carr said he had been paying the sales tax all along.

Baker said Gold Coast may not have a tax exemption number but the city does and this would eliminate some of the added expense.

At the regular meeting, the commissioners expressed a particular desire to relieve Carr of the extra expense, or part of it, because the city was partially responsible for part of a delay in the beginning of construction.

The delay came when the city refused to accept Carr's usual performance bond. Mallory said the performance bond required by the city is considerably more comprehensive than the normal bond, since some of the price increases on asphalt took place during this delay.

Seniors' Fish Fry To Be Held

Members of the Belle Glade Jaycees will be meeting with pastors of Glades churches during the next week or so to help set up a county-wide fish fry on Valentine's Day.

A county-wide effort is being coordinated by Lee Mandel, founder of Sea-Op, a cooperative set up a few months ago to help feed senior citizens on fixed incomes.

Mandel's efforts thus far have hinged on selling over-65 persons fish at discounted prices. He flew several hundred pounds of mallet to the Glades last October after hearing the Meals On Wheels project had been shut down for lack of funds.

Belle Glade Jaycee President J.D. "Butch" Henderson said the Jaycees' primary effort will be to inform local churches about the project and coordinate early planning.

They Clowned It Up For Belle Glade Youths

Belle Glade children were treated to belly laughs as only the famous clowns of Ringling Brothers and Bailey Circus can provide this past weekend. Several Belle Glade youths and their families were sent to the circus in West Palm Beach courtesy of The Belle Glade Herald. They saw death defying acrobats, brave lion tamers and fancy horse riders all under the big top in the most famous circus of all. For more picnic of the circus please turn to our Home Front section in today's Herald. And who knows, one day you'll be a lucky winner of tickets for you and your family to attend the "Greatest Show on Earth."

The Last Harvest?

When Miss Pat Baker, a Herald employee at the time, was named the 1973 Harvest Queen, we were understandably proud but we didn't realize then she could easily be the last Harvest Queen ever.

The Belle Glade Jaycees sponsored the first Harvest Queen in 1954 and, although they certainly had problems with the pageant through the years, the show went on year after year.

No more.

Jaycee president J.D. "Butch" Henderson confirmed this week the club definitely decided in late December they would not put on the pageant this year and he couldn't say whether the Jaycees will ever take on the task again.

It isn't a matter of life or death who is named Harvest Queen and the world doesn't revolve around the pageant...and 20 years isn't even a particularly long time for a tradition to take hold if it's being compared to the swing of Pleides.

But it's still a shame to see something like the Harvest Queen die. In a city with the short history Belle Glade has, 20 years is a pretty long time.

Henderson said the "Young Men of Action", as the Jaycees refer to themselves, have no members with the time and expertise to coordinate the pageant...and it does take a lot of time, energy and knowhow.

He said the pageant has been losing money the club simply can't afford to spend at this time...and such a production, with all its attendant gifts and other expenses isn't inexpensive.

But the contest, although it is traditionally held in the Glades Central gymnasium, is one of the few annual events to draw the efforts of people throughout the spectrum of Belle Glade society.

It is a focal point the community can fasten onto and the Harvest Queen, if utilized correctly, could represent the city at all sorts of functions, much as a number of other festival queens around the nation, in any number of ways.

If the Young Men of Action find it difficult or impossible to continue the tradition, there is the distinct possibility another group or coalition of groups could continue it.

Another possibility, which could be considered with or instead of that proposal, would be for another group or coalition to begin sponsoring a pageant of a different nature.

Let's face it, over the past few years, the manner in which the young ladies were judged to pick the winner and runners-up have been barely satisfactory at best.

While beauty contests are being decried by members of the feminist movement as degrading to women, beauty is still a definite, if amorphous, quality to be judged.

The same can be said of talent, displayed through a talent contest, or some other set of qualities the judges can use.

While a reversion to the use of bathing suits may or may not be part of the answer, there should be more relevant values than, "how the contestant wears an evening gown, charm, poise and overall appearance" (whatever that means).

At any rate, opportunity is pounding on someone's door right now and if no one opens that door, the Glades could lose a 20-year tradition forever.

Poincianas Offered—Free

Dear Sir:

Florida will be only as beautiful as you and I make it. Flowering trees help enormously. If any of your readers would like to try growing the Royal Poinciana, our most spectacular June bloomer, I will be glad to send them some seed with planting instructions if they will send a dime to cover mailing expense to:

TRAVEL TIP

To help gas-short motorists looking for late-night or weekend refueling, there is now a new national directory of 370 24-hour service stations. The directory, which sells for 12¢, is published by Raymond Associates, 28-N. York 10566.

Too Much Of Some, Not Enough Of Others

One of the favorite lines you'll hear sooner or later from just about anybody over the age of 16 is that today's workers just don't take pride in their work anymore.

That's not so in every case. One of the many disadvantages of being a heavyweight like me is that you're hard on the dickies on shoe leather, so one of the first places I usually find in a town is the closest shoe repair shop.

I went into Glades Shoe Repair the other day with a shoe that was coming apart at the heel and asked the younger Mr. Lee, who operates the shop for his father, if it could be fixed.

He said it could, did it, and when I asked how much it was going to cost, he said there was no charge because I'd had the shoes full-soled and re-heeled there.

"It shouldn't have happened anyway," he said.

Now the shocker is that I hadn't brought up the subject of the former repair job and must have taken place a good two or three months ago.

That's what I call pride of craftsmanship and you don't see nearly enough of it any more. As a matter of fact, if there were a list of endangered social traits it would have to be right at the top of the list.

And it makes you feel pretty darned good whenever you see it. As the bootie commercial puts it, Mr. Lee, "Thanks, I needed that."

*****

Did I ever get tired of hearing all the things we're supposed to observe through the year, like Groundhog Day, International Love Your Neighbor Week and National Billy Button Lint Harvesting Day?

Well, chirp up, cousin, I hope you enjoyed Jan. 16. I know I did, once I found what it was.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

That was National Nothing Day, devoted to the practice of celebrating nothing, observing nothing and, if you so desired, doing nothing. Just loaf, man, that was the name of the game.

Now, that's my kind of a day. I think it says something about our modern society, though, when we have to set aside a day for doing nothing but what comes naturally.

Now, don't get me wrong. I'm not afraid of work. As a matter of fact, I can lay down and go to sleep right beside it. Just ask Glenn.

It's just that there is, or so we've been told by the so-called experts, an energy crisis laid on for the time being and as I've said before, I've had my own crisis for more years than I care to think about.

Besides, who ever really uses the week in question for commemorating whatever is in question? For instance, I'll bet if you knew last week was National Jaycee Week, and observed it, you're either a Jaycee yourself or you're married to one.

See what I mean? I mean, there's got to be something wrong when a special week is set aside for secretaries (beginning April 21) and for some mysterious reason, should be Visit Your Relatives Day (but only if you want to).

Besides National Nothing Day, I guess the only commemorative date that appeals very much to me is the week of March 4, which I usually observe a week or two late since it's

I guess I'm just a kid at heart—but the circus still holds a great fascination for me.

This is why each year The Herald jumps at the chance to run a special promotion for Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus. In exchange for advertising space we receive a certain number of the better seats in the house.

Then we hold a contest where the kids write in and tell why they should be able to take their family to the circus. And after all, that's what circuses are all about—kids.

In these days of pornographic movies and books, violence on television and all the other forms of "entertainment" which now abound, the circus is a refreshing, wholesome breeze. It sends a chill down my back when I glance over at my little daughter and see the rapt expression on her face as she is completely absorbed in what is going on.

We are glad we can help promote something of this ilk. With so few things to do in the Glades, we like to give some deserving families a pleasant few hours in the world of the circus.

*****

It is really a shame a tradition is going to die in Belle Glade.

We are losing a lot of our traditions in this world. And traditions are the kind of things you sort of hold on to—the kind of things that give an extra boost to our everyday life.

But now, after 20 years, Belle Glade will no longer have a Harvest Queen Contest.

What a beauty contest, you might say. But it is more than just a beauty contest—it is a tradition. Every year the prettiest girls in town parade before a panel of judges and the prettiest, most wholesome is chosen.

The Herald became deeply involved last year with the contest. We were the headquarters for entrants. But beyond that we had two pretty girls from our staff in the contest itself. They were both fine, intelligent young women. They were as far from the stereotypical painted of today's youth as possibly could be.

We sponsored one of them—Brenda Thigpen and Tom Norton Motor Co. sponsored the other, Pat Baker. Both girls looked lovely that night. And we were so proud of Pat when she was chosen Miss Harvest Queen, 1973.

But there I go getting a little maudlin again—after all, it's only a tradition. (Oops, excuse me, it was a tradition.

I haven't given up on this one hospital, one hospital district proposal. There are some roadblocks. But they can be overcome.

I have started a poll of hospital board members. So far they are 100 per cent in favor of the proposal. One big obstacle is the amount of land needed for a junior college.

The state requires at least 40 acres of land for a junior college. We don't know whether there is 40 acres of land available around the present Belle Glade Hospital. This is in the process of being researched. Getting hold of all the board members for their opinion on the subject is difficult as well.

But we still feel a one area hospital and hospital district would benefit Pahokee and Belle Glade more than when we were separately have. Just wanted to let you know, though, we haven't dropped the subject—just regrouping.

Hi! I'm Cindy.

Some people on Main Street are already calling me the Herald Lass. They say I'm going to be meeting a lot of new people here and I sure hope so because that's one thing I like...people.

Just because I don't say too much, a lot of people think I don't know what's going on but you'd be surprised what you can pick up by keeping your eyes and ears open (or by reading the Herald) and you know what they say about the mouths of babes.

So hang in here with the Herald. We're a lot alike because we're both small...and we're both dynamite.

See ya in the funny papers.

Go Fly A Kite

With the wind arising just school out, Monday was a perfect day to get in a little kite flying in Belle Glade and these guys had a variety of the soars in the air just off North Main Street.

They were only one group of a number in the area who were taking advantage of the wind currents and no school.

There were flying bats, inflatable kites and plain old double-triangle kites being lifted high in the sky at the end of tethers of string.

Bring back memories!

GCHS Basketball JV Rolls On

Saturday night the Raiders Junior Varsity completely outscored Labelle J.V.'s 92 to 11.

Leading scorers were Ardel Daniels 20 pts, Alexander Brown 11 pts, Johnnie Rutledge 11 pts, and William Lasky 9 pts.

Michael Frimble and George Smith were the leading rebounders with 16 and six rebounds each.

Alexander Brown and Haywood Bryant lead the team in assist with six and four assist respectively.

Others that played a fine game were Reggie Fitzgerald, T.J. Salter, Patrick Collie, Norman Smith, Ernest Jack.

son, Melvin Stevenson and Ray Harris.

The J.V.'s record is now 8 and 0 with 11 games remaining on the schedule. The Raiders have two home games, Friday, Cardinal Newman and Saturday Forest Hill.

The Raiders Junior Varsity crushed their arch rival Pahokee J.V. 76 to 60.

Ardell Daniels and Michael Pingle were the men of the hour, scoring 30 and 20 points respectively. William Lasky and Alexander Brown scored 10 and nine points a piece.

Michael Frimble and Ardel Daniels were also the leading rebounders with 17 and eight rebounds each.

Haywood Bryant handed out 14 assist.

Others that contributed to the team victory were George Smith, Patrick Collie, T.J. Salter, Norman Smith, Ernest Jackson, David Locke, Johnnie Rutledge, Richard Thompson and Reggie Fitzgerald.

Women Golfers Meet

The Women's Golf Association met on Jan. 16, and played a low net match. Members participating were Mrs. Kat Weeks, Mrs. Louis Vison, Mrs. Pat Smith, Mrs. Billie Shirley, Mrs. Mildred Maupin, Mrs. Dianne Carter, Mrs. Mary John, Mrs. Maggie Fajol, Mrs. Ramona Knight, Mrs. Lillian Beverly, and Mrs. Edith VanLandingham.

Tying for first place were Mrs. Pat Smith and Mrs. Lillian Beverly with Net 74.

Mrs. Jo Knight was attending a meeting in Tampa as our District Board Member for the Women's State Golf Tournament which will be held in April of this year in San City. More information of this when she returns.

Karen's Korner

By Karen Hansford

Well, guess who's the new Vice President of the Women's Softball League?

Yours truly. Seems no one else wanted the job so they had to scrape the bottom of the barrel, and that's where they found me.

Here I was, sitting inconspicuously to the side of the room, my camera and notebook ready in case anything exciting might happen.

The President (should I say ex-President now that she is no longer the President) was taking all nominations for officers, of which there were many names mentioned but all declined for one reason or another, and then suspiciously familiar voice piped up from the back of the room nominating me.

I, of all people, who couldn't even get elected trash chairman in grade school! Oh well, that's life.

I've got the best seat anyway. As Vice President, all I have to do is sit back and let the President and Secretary-Treasurer do all the work.

Fat chance, that's just wishful thinking. I already have problems facing me and the season doesn't even begin until June.

I've noticed the increasing number of kite flyers around here lately.

Everywhere, young and old alike are out flying their kites. (Is that a poem?) And everywhere includes the parking lot behind Grants Department Store.

Not that it isn't a nice place to fly kites, it has a lot of room to run in when you're trying to put the kite in the air.

But woe is the one who trips on the pavement while running!

Curt Gowdy really said a mouthful

when he renamed Sunday's Pro Bowl as the "Turnover Bowl."

Some people claim it was no boring they fell asleep during the first half. It depends on what you like—a dull, conservative game with each team afraid to take any chances or one which keeps everyone on his toes.

Watching each team have the ball pop out of their hands was pretty interesting, hilarious, even.

Who would think all those fumbles and interceptions would happen to the "best of the pros?"

And it wasn't as if one team was walking all over the other, rather both were having problems. Even O.J. Simpson was having problems, fumbling the ball twice and causing penalties when he started too soon.

Little ole Garo Yepremian turned out to be the hero of the game, setting a Pro Bowl record of five field goals. He kicked three of them with a lame leg.

It was funny, yet stirring, when he hobbled off the field after being rolled upon by a player and hurting his knee, and then he ran back onto the field to kick the field goal over again when he found out the first one had been nullified because of a penalty.

Some people don't realize the importance of the kicker until it comes to a game like this. If it hadn't been for Garo, the American Conference (which was supposed to dominate over the National Conference) could have kissed the football good-bye, if they could have held onto it long enough that is.

And we can't forget good ole Bob Griese, the quarterback behind it who drove the ball to within field goal distance for Yepremian to add the winning points with 21 seconds left on the clock.

With a guy like him, it's no small wonder the Dolphins have a winning team.

Safe Hunters Picked Out

"You can pick out a safe hunter every time," says Captain Jim Carter, Firearms Safety Coordinator for the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, "because they have an air about them."

This "air of safety" is an attitude that stands out in a group of hunters. Having the proper attitude along with good gun handling skills make the safe hunter, and every hunter can pick him out," says Carter.

Big game season is almost over in Florida this year, but bird and small game hunting will continue into February and March. Carter reminded sportmen that this type hunting requires the same gun handling skills and safety consciousness that big game hunting demands.

A safe hunter never puts down a loaded gun, especially in an automobile. "There is no reason or excuse for having a loaded firearm in your car," Carter stated. "It is an open invitation for an accident," he pointed out.

It is illegal to discharge a firearm on or over any paved public road, highway, street, or occupied premises. In addition, special regulations on the Commission's management areas govern the carrying of loaded guns in vehicles, or having loaded guns within specified distances of campsites or checking stations.

More gun accidents happen in the home than in the field. Safety in storage: firearms in the home is just as important, as using good gun handling techniques in the field.

Always guns unloaded under lock and key, and store ammunition in another part of the house also under lock and key. Take every precaution to make sure that little ones have no chance of getting to firearms. And, most important, make sure the young sportsman in your home obtains a safe hunter certification early in his hunting career.

Lemon Rolls 300 - 4

A near-perfect score of 298 was bowled recently by Triangle Lanes owner Harvey Lemon during Sixgrass League competition as he rolled his 27th series of three games with scores over 700. His series score was 721 Dec. 26, the night he rolled the high score. Lemon will receive at least two and possibly three awards for the high game. With an average of 190, he is entitled to a Century Patch for bowling a game more than 100 pins above his average; for rolling 11 strikes in a row, he receives another award from the American Bowling Congress and he may receive still another award for the highest sanctioned game score in the county for 1973.

Engagement Told

The engagement of Miss Lynda Susan Mozinski to Lewis P. Hanna Jr. of Cocoa is announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gillis of Cocoa.

Miss Mozinski is the niece of Miss Mary Lou Copeland of Belle Glade. Hannah is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Hanna Sr. of St. Cloud.

The couple will be married Feb. 16 at the First United Methodist Church, Cocoa.

Thank You

I would like to express my personal gratitude to the many friends and neighbors who expressed their sorrow and extended comfort following the recent loss of my wife, Mrs. William Masonic.

(Signed)
William Masonic.

Allegheny Alumni To Meet

Allegheny College alumni who live on Florida's East Coast will have two opportunities to get together with their fellow Alleghenians on Jan. 24. The doubleheader event consists of a luncheon meeting scheduled for noon at the Boca Raton Hotel and Club in Boca Raton and dinner meeting set for 7:15 at the Key Biscayne Hotel, Key Biscayne. The dinner will be preceded by a reception at 6:30.

Special guests at the meetings will be Dr. Laurence I. Polster, Allegheny's president since 1955, and Dr. Paul R. Caros, an Allegheny graduate who has taught history at his alma mater for more than forty years. Dr. Polster will discuss the College as seen by the administration, while Dr. Caros will talk to alumni about their College from the point of view of a faculty member.

Allegheny, founded in 1915, is a private liberal arts college located in Meadville, Pennsylvania. The student body numbers about 1,850.

The meetings have been arranged by Allegheny graduates who are residents of the area.

Members of the committee are Dr. Ralph W. Dye of Fort Lauderdale, retired, Class of 1922; Ralph A. Clark of Delray Beach, retired, Class of 1924; James E. Reetz of Miami, vice president of American Vinyl Company of Hialeah, Class of 1949; Clinton Street of Boca Raton, member of the law firm of Scott and Dickinson, Class of 1950; and William T. McCullough of Miami, senior vice President of First National Bank of Miami, Class of 1953.

Hearts And Flowers

Mrs. Ercel Mixson of Mixson's Florist, (on left) demonstrates flower arranging to Omicron Iota sorority members Mrs. Bill Mills and Mrs. Tom Zitter, who will be helping to decorate the Belle Glade Elks Lodge 1716 Feb. 23 for the annual Belle Glade Heart Ball. Mrs. Mills said tickets for the ball can still be purchased by calling 996-0265. The Hill Kimmel Fund of Miami will be providing music for the annual event. Proceeds will go to a number of areas designed for fighting heart disease.

Library News

The school of the month for January at the Belle Glade Municipal Library is Belle Glade Elementary School.

Students from there do not have to pay fines on overdue library books and if they have lost their library card, they can get a new one free.

Teachers at Belle Glade Elementary are encouraged to bring their classes to the library for a visit and also to bring their students' art work for display.

Gustavo Sanchez has an art show up in the public library's multi-purpose room. There are many scenes of this area. Do come in and see.

Contest Underway

Member clubs of the City Association of Women's Clubs are beginning to submit names of candidates for the "Miss Federated Clubs" contest to take place in March.

The association is made up of several women's and civic clubs and was recently formed, electing Mrs. Willie M. White as president.

At the association's first meeting of the year, held Jan. 16, Mrs. White wished the members a Happy New Year and thanked them for their full cooperation in the past and solicited their further cooperation this year.

"Each year," she said, "our annual event takes place in March, with full cooperation of each club. Election time is drawing near, June to be exact."

The only contestant named for the Miss Federated Clubs title so far is Mrs. Ida Muehl, who will act as Queen and the Women's Civic Club have also committed themselves but have not yet announced the name of their candidates.

"For lifting as we climb," Mrs. White said, "we are depending on you in making this an unforgettable event."

Anniversary Dance Planned

The Modernistic Cosmopolitan Club is presenting its second anniversary dance at 9 p.m. Saturday at the Circle League Building on Southwest Avenue E.

The Glades Correctional Institution Rock Band will be featured as entertainment and tickets can be purchased in advance for $2.50 or for $3 at the door.

This beautiful club is no newcomer to Belle Glade. It was started in 1940 and was originally known as Club 23. Mrs. Frances Morgan of Belle Glade began the club and under her supervision there were many different activities being carried on to help raise funds. She served as president for the club until just recently. For a short period of time, the club became inactive but was brought back to life again with Mrs. Dorothy Singleton serving as president.

Following the death of Mrs. Singleton, Mrs. Elnora Benjamin accepted the presidency, followed by Mrs. Eudell Verem of 825 S.W. Ninth St. now serving her second term. The club has since changed its name to Club 28.

Other officers include vice-president Bernestine Nelson, secretary Freddie Howard, treasurer Mrs. Annie L. Hilkey, chairman Mrs. Flora Hicks and assistant secretary and advisor Elnora Benjamin. Other active members are Mrs. Ida Brown, Mrs. Letha Hilkey, Mrs. Shirley Morris, Willie James Potter and Mrs. Lovella Vickers.

Candy Land Cutie

Debbie Alice Clarke was one of the many cast members of the 104th edition of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus which was in the West Palm Beach area last weekend and this week. She is shown here in a costume of all white to Candyland, a special children's attraction under the Big Top.

Recruit Drive Begins

The Florida Army National Guard will undertake the largest and most important recruiting drive since the end of World War II, according to Major General Henry W. McMillan, the adjutant general of Florida.

The aim of the intensive recruiting campaign, "Operation Guard Power," is to enlist 600 citizen-soldiers, both men and women.

The effort will involve more than 20 full-time employees of the Florida National Guard and as many as 4,000 part-time Army National Guardsmen during a 10-day period, February 9 through 24.

General McMillan said, "It is critical that the program succeed. 'What is at stake is the continuing capability of the Florida National Guard to meet its commitments in service to the communities, to the State of Florida and to the Nation.'

The recruiting effort will be concentrated in the Jacksonville and the South Florida area, to bring the units located there up to their authorized strength.

Qualified to join men and women 18 years of age and up and prior service men and women who have been discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces. The Florida National Guard can provide a good part-time job with the new higher pay scales recently approved by Congress and training in a skill that will enhance civilian occupations and improve job opportunities.

Citizens meet at various armories around the state one weekend a month and attend two weeks field training each year.

The local National Guard unit is Collet Battalion 154th Infantry, located across from the Holiday Inn Telephone 596-6193.

Manager Named

H. & R. Block introduced a new office manager to the Belle Glade area recently as Walter N. Gray Jr., formerly of Oklawaha, took over as local supervisor. Gray said his wife, Lois, has been involved in tax work for several years in Oklawaha, where he was for eight years an instructor at the Florida School for Boys. Gray opened the local office after taking basic and advanced courses in tax consulting. He made a general invitation to area residents to drop by his office at 125 S. Main St. for a cup of coffee. He said he has free tax savers to aid taxpayers in making out proper deductions.

Boat Inspection Set For Sunday

Florida 33 of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary will conduct Courtesy Motorboat Inspections at the Belle Glade Marina Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. Members of the local Florida are being trained to aid boat owners in determining the safety equipment that should be maintained on their boat.

Boaters who have all the required Federal, State and Auxiliary listed equipment, in working order, will be awarded the 1971 Courtesy Inspection sticker. This sticker indicates that his boat has met all the requirements and that the owner is aware of regulations. All persons interested in having their boat inspected are urged to bring their boat to the Marina where it can be inspected on the trailer if not in the water.

Glades Central Students Receive Test Scores

Results of the Stanford Achievement Test and the Otis-Lennon Mental Ability Test and registration for classes next year are currently being discussed with the students at Glades Central High School. The tests were administered in the fall of the current year to all students in Palm Beach County and individual results have been returned to each school. Registration for classes next year will hopefully be completed by Feb. 15. Careers and vocational choices will be emphasized when selecting classes. Any parent who is interested in discussing the test results or needing information concerning class enrollment, please contact the guidance office on either campus.

At Tom Norton Motor Company Good Service Is Our Bag!

My name is Jerry Nehls and I'm the Service Manager at Tom Norton Motor Co. in downtown Belle Glade. We have a new slogan at our office-it reads, "At Tom Norton Motor Co. Good Service Is Our Bag." But it is more than just a cute saying. I am responsible for making sure your car goes out of our service department with everything just the way you want it. I take my job seriously. Before your car leaves our shop it is cleaned and the parts we have replaced, where permitting, have been put in a plastic bag in your trunk. If you will call me and set up a time for us to work on your car, I would be proud to show you what one of our fine mechanics can do for your car. We would really like to BAG you as a regular customer.

Belle Glade Goes To The Circus

Belle Glade went to the circus Friday courtesy of The Belle Glade Herald. The paper ran a contest with local children writing in telling us why they should be allowed to take their family to the circus. Winners were Timmy Minor, Linda Brand and Stanley Costor. Above Kathy Mallory of Belle Glade pets one of the little ponies which appeared in the circus while at the left an acrobat defies death, hanging high over the crowd. Meanwhile, on the right, Mrs. Conal munches contentedly on his daily meal just before show time.

Hospitalized Scoutmaster Receives Prized Silver Beaver Award

Scoutmaster Robert Fincannon was awarded the highest possible council-level scouting award Saturday in a surprise presentation at Everglades Memorial Hospital.

More than 20 scouts and scouters gathered in the lobby of the hospital for the presentation by Gulf Stream Council Executive John Van Trease of the Silver Beaver Award.

Fincannon was presented the medal at the hospital because he was recovering from surgery and was unable to attend the annual Gulf Stream Awards Banquet in West Palm Beach. He was one of four scouters in the seven-county district to receive the award this year.

"This award isn't given just for scouting activities," Van Trease said, "although you do have to be a scout to win it." He said it is presented for overall service to both scouting and the community rather than for any one service.

Fincannon has been involved in scouting for more than 25 years, joining the BSA in 1960 in his native North Carolina. He has been named to the Order of the Arrow, Eagle Scout, Patrol Leader, Senior Patrol Leader and assistant scoutmaster and has been scoutmaster in North Carolina, Fernandina Beach and Belle Glade.

He came to Belle Glade from Fernandina Beach in 1968. Overlapping the move, he was active in the Jaycees from 1961. Overlapping the move, he was active in the Jaycees from 1961 to 1970, holding the position of state director for three years and winning the Key Man Award one year.

An elementary school teacher, he has been active in the PTA, served as member of the Glades Area Palm Beach Junior College Advisory Board and is a member of the Palm Beach County Teachers Assoc.

He is also a member of Elks Lodge 1716 and was chosen man of the year by the Xi Beta Gamma chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Society in 1970 and has worked for the United Way for the past two years. As a local scout leader, District Chairman last year, winning the district's first annual Distinguished Service Award. He is also a member of the Gulf Stream Executive Council.

In winning the Silver Beaver, Fincannon became the sixth Glades resident to earn the award, joining Gideon Grown and Arthur King of Clewiston and Reginald Lewis, Dr. R.J. Allen and W.C. Taylor, all of Belle Glade.

Van Trease said he broke tradition in presenting the award in Fincannon Saturday morning since no one usually knows who is to win the award until the banquet which was held Saturday night.

There are a total of 2,500 adults in the council who were eligible for the award. They supervise more than 7,000 scouts in 245 units. The other three Gulf Stream Council recipients of the Silver Beaver Award this year were Douglas L. Arnold of Stuart, Gerald E. Turner of Delray Beach and Shepard P. Lesser of West Palm Beach.

2 Earn Tour Of Venezuela

Two local businessmen have earned tours to Caracas, Venezuela by meeting quotas in sales of Admiral appliances. Earl Meredith of Earl's Service Center and Wayne Carter of Carter Electric won the trips and Meredith said he and Carter will both be taking along their families.

The tours, with all expenses paid for the two store owners, will begin when the Belle Glade businessmen leave Friday and will last for six days.

"This is something you work for all year," Meredith said. He said he won a trip to Puerto Rico last year by the same method.

Audubon Trip Set

A beautiful program of slides featuring Wild Flowers and Birds from the Great Smokies to Newfoundland will be presented by Dr. L. M. Westman at the January meeting of Lake Okechobee Audubon Society.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. tonight, at the Everglades Experiment Station Library. A field trip is planned for Saturday, Feb. 9, to the Barley Barber Swamp. Those wishing to go are asked to call 986-2788 for information. It is necessary to know exactly how many are going by Feb. 1, as Fla. Power & Light Co. will provide transportation into the swamp from a meeting place in Indiantown.

The public is always welcome to attend our meeting and share our field trips.

Methodist Women Meet

The United Methodist Women held their first meeting of the new year Jan. 15 in the church parl., with the meeting being opened by a devotional and prayer by Miss Vida Hardee.

A business meeting, presided over by the new president, Mrs. Randall Parsons, followed.

The club new 1974 officers are:

President, Mrs. Nan Drag; Treasurer, Mrs. Cary Wall; Secretary, Mrs. Malcolm Bedole; and special coordinators Mrs. Phillip Dulany and Mrs. James Wiesner.

The women indicated a variety of interests in the planning for several active groups.

After being entertained with music and song by Rita Schoenfeld and Carolyn Parsons, a program on missions was presented, emphasizing "The Weak of Prayer and Self Denial."

After one week of self denial, United Methodist Women give money to the support of mission schools for young children and teenagers who need help.

Across the nation and in foreign countries, schools and centers offer a variety of programs meeting a wide range of needs of children and teenagers.

Mrs. Cary Wall, Mrs. Alyce Hubner and Mrs. Malcolm Bedole gave short talks on the operation of a number of schools and centers in the United States.

Miss Margaret West gave a talk on schools located in Africa, Asia, South America and Central America.

The program was given in preparation for a prayer and covered dish supper at 6 p.m.

Church Anniversary Celebrates

The Christian Church in Belle Glade will be celebrating its first anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 3.

The congregation began meeting regularly one year ago in the cafeteria of Gove Elementary School.

The congregation is now meeting in their almost completed building at 346 E. Canal Street South.

The Christian Church will commemorate the day by holding its first regular Sunday evening service. The event will be somewhat different, as everyone is invited. The celebration will begin with a covered dish supper at 6 p.m.

Senior Response Slow

Palm Beach Junior College Center Executive Dean Dr. Cecil Conley said the center has had one response to the special program being offered Glades area senior citizens.

Dr. Conley said George C. Young, of 2001 N.W. Ave. D is one of a total of 12 Palm Beach County residents over the age of 60 who are taking advantage of the $4 price per course the junior college made available the first time for the winter term.

Young is taking courses in Ethics, being taught by Father E.M. Ringland of St. John's Episcopal Church, and American Social Problems, being taught by Victor Dertis, a local public school teacher.

The program is being offered in order to make college level courses available to the elderly at a different rate. Courses are made available on a first come, first serve basis on the last day of drop and add for classes which will have response.

PBJC Trustees Add To Glades Courses

DR. R.M. EISSEY MAKES A POINT DURING MEETING HERE OF PBJC Board of Trustees at the Glades Center in the National Guard Armory of SHMO.

Meeting for the second time at the Glades Center, the Palm Beach Junior College Board of Trustees unanimously decided to accept proposed courses in basic electronics and basic reading at the center.

Center Executive Dean Cecil Conley said the basic reading course is one of the most needed courses at the center because "many of our students have trouble reading."

Conley said the motion was to find funds for the course and it has been tentatively agreed to use part of a $10,000 grant in the business education department, under which the course will be taught.

The area has a large number of migrants, he said, "and many of the children are poorly prepared, especially in reading. In order to do satisfactorily in office practice type courses, their ability to read needs to be improved."

Conley said he believes he will probably be another year before the course, with about 10 students participating.

La Niña de Guatemala Para Aragon

Quiero, a la sombra de un alba, cantar este canto en flor: la niña de Guatemala, la que se muere de amor.

Eran de lirios los ramos, y las orlas de rosado y de jamaica; la enterramos en una caja de seda.

Ella dio al desmemoriado una almohadilla de olor: el cubito, volaba en volando, ella se muere de amor.

Bien cargado en andas, el cubito en volando, ella se muere de amor.

Ella, por volver a ver, sale a verlo al mirador: el cubito con su mujer, ella se muere de amor.

Canto de lirios, candelito al beso de despedida, era su frente la frente que mas he amado en mi vida!

Se entro de tarde en el rio, la cara muerta el doctor: "dime que murio de fe: o sea que murio de amor."

Alto en la buena fe, la posieron en dos brazos: beso su mano afilada, beso sus zapatos blancos.

Callada, al oírse, me llamo el enterrador: nunca mas he vuelto a ver a la que murio de amor.

Para Aragon, en Espana, tengo yo en mi corazon un lugar todo Aragon, franco, lloero, fiel, sin suena.

Si quiero un tanto saber por que lo tengo, le digo que alli tuve un buen amigo, que alli quise a una mujer.

Alto, en la vega florida, la de la herencia defendida, me mantiene la que piensa meca la gente la vida.

Y si un albrake lo apricia a la enaja un rey cazador, calza la manta el haurito y muere con su escueta.

Quiero a la tierra amarilla que luna el Elviro lodono: quiero el Pilar anillo de la luna y de la padilla.

Estimo a quien de un reves vela por la vida a un tirano: los estimo, si es un cubano, los estimo, si es aragones.

Amo los patios sombríos con sus flores bordadas: amo las naves calladas y los conventos vacíos.

Amo la tierra florida, musulmana o española, donde rompo su corola la poca flor de mi vida.

THE HERALD WELCOMES NEWS ITEMS FROM YOUR CHURCH EACH WEEK.

Jeremiah People To Perform

CHUCK BOLTE DIRECTS JEREMIAH PEOPLE presentation at Methodist Church Friday Night.

Christian Science Explained

by Jane Dougherty
Assistant Christian Science
Committee on Publication for Belle Glade

The question has been asked, "What else is there in Christian Science besides healing by spiritual means?"

Science does not permit a complete answer, but it may help to realize that such healing without any material remedy is only a small part of Christian Science, but is the most practical illustration in proving the validity of the Christian Science way of life.

Testimonies of healings are given at Wednesday evening meetings in Christian Science churches all over the world. Carefully verified healings are printed in Christian Science periodicals and broadcast over weekly radio programs.

In many cases there are hospital records, x-rays, insurance reports, and other types of medical evidence which corroborate the nature of the healings.

As remarkable as these healings appear to be, it must be remembered that the total aim of Christian Science is a full salvation for all mankind. To think seriously about these things certainly makes one realize that there is much to be saved from in human experience—not only physical suffering, but also the bondage of sin, fear, injustice, lack, ignorance, sorrow and death.

This meaning of salvation is seen most clearly in the life of Christ Jesus whose example of perfect obedience to God resulted in the healing of all in harmony, and freedom from sin, disease and death.

SUNDAY

Young people at the Community United Methodist Church will highlight their Youth Activities Week at 7:30 p.m. Friday night with a performance by the Jeremiah People.

To finish the week, a car wash was held Saturday in the alley behind the church and the week continued with a movie and a prayer breakfast Monday and a prayer breakfast Wednesday.

The Jeremiah People are seven youths led by director Chuck Bolte. They put on a 90 minute performance of music, comedy and drama.

Besides directing the presentation, Bolte also contributes to the variety in a variety of theater roles as well as his musical ability.

A native of Colorado Springs, Col. Bolte was a recently graduated from the University of Northern Colorado with a degree in earth science. While a student at the university, he was involved with the ministry of Campus Crusade. He also formed and directed "33 A.D.", a folk-rock group which performed throughout Colorado and the midwestern states.

Jeremiah People are currently on a nine month tour of nightly performances across the United States, traveling from 100 to 300 miles per day. They perform at military bases, churches, auditoriums, outdoor pavilions, high schools and colleges from coast to coast.

Along with all other Christians, Christian Scientists recognize Christ Jesus as their Wayshower. He showed us man's whole purpose is to express God and to reflect a generous portion of the Christ-spirit toward his fellow man.

Christian Scientists accept the words of Christ Jesus, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh to the Father but by me" (The Bible, John 14:6).

Christian Scientists believe that salvation begins here and now by acknowledging God as the only basis for right thought and action.

This acknowledgment "in hidden purification of heart and sacrifice of fears, sensuality, false pride, and materialism so that we can begin to understand what God is our life."

The first tenet of Christian Science sums it up this way in the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "An adherent of Truth we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life."

Everyone is invited to attend Sunday morning Church Services and Wednesday evening testimonial meetings and to enroll young people in the Sunday School at First Church of Christ, Scientist on Avenue E in Belle Glade.

LITTLE PERSON IS ... William Crittenden.

William Crittenden Winner of Contest

Little William Crittenden was the winner of a recent "Little People" contest held by the Working Workers Club at St. John's Baptist Church as part of the club's annual affair, set for April 30.

The club is divided in half, with half the membership working with "Miss Willing", Mrs. Anna Blackshear and the other half following "Miss Worker", Mrs. Evelyn Wallace. William was sponsored by Mrs. Wallace.

VACUUM

Steve doesn't mind. Only a little. He knows Dad has to travel. And some days Mom must work the evening shift.

Steve doesn't mind. Not very much. It's just that food doesn't make a dinner. It's like a vacuum when you're alone. And the evening — what's to do?

Such vacuums can affect adversely the developing personality of a child. They can also test a child's sense of security and self-reliance.

We claim no expertise in child psychology. Our concern, however, is that there be no Sunday morning vacuum. A Steve whose character is being molded by spiritual and moral training, a Steve whose home has the atmosphere of religious conviction and integrity... such a Steve is better equipped to meet the tests of loneliness and freedom.

In many families we cannot alter circumstances—but we can foster quality of character to cope with it. The Church is ready to help!

By Milton Carpenter

Most Americans (97 percent) who apply for life insurance are able to get it. Of the 3 percent who are not acceptable, about three quarters are related to serious health impairments and the rest of the factors, including extremely hazardous jobs.

To cover persons in "high risk" categories, there are "raised" policies which, naturally, carry higher premium rates.

Life insurance companies are always glad to remove medical "ratings" when they no longer exist, such as in obesity. The same applies in changing from a risky occupation to a safe one.

If you are a smoker, check with your agent about a non-smoking policy.

This, however, does not apply in reverse. If you are safe and healthy when you purchase a policy and become risky in health or occupation later, you will not lose your policy or have to pay an extra premium.

Partnership protection.

Business partnerships exist only as long as both partners survive. This is why Nationwide introduces partnership protection, a joint life insurance plan designed to cover a two-person business.

If a partner dies, Nationwide can provide cash to the surviving partner to purchase the deceased partner's share.
